Agenda

Developing effective Voluntary and Community Sector (VCS) engagement in the new world of health and social care

26 March 2013
Aura Commerce & Technology Centre,
Manners Road, Newark, Nottinghamshire NG24 1BS

09.30 Registration & refreshments

10.00 Welcome and event overview – Richard Hazledine, ConnectMore Solutions on behalf of One East Midlands

10.10 SESSION ONE – VCS Engagement with Health and Wellbeing Boards

The role of Health and Wellbeing Boards and the need for VCS engagement.
Tony Hill - Health and Wellbeing Board Chair and Director of Public Health, Lincolnshire County Council

10.30 VCS engagement models with Health and Wellbeing Boards

- Role of Healthwatch – Shobha Asar-Paul, Local Government Association
- Developing VCS representation and provider forums – Sarah Collis – CEO, Self Help Nottingham & Cheryl Cooper - HWB transition, Nottingham City Council

10.50 Panel Q & A on VCS engagement with Health and Wellbeing boards.

11.20 SESSION TWO – VCS Engagement with strategic priorities and needs

The role of Joint Strategic Needs Assessments and Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategies. Session to include a case study of good practice in VCS engagement with the development of JSNA and JHWS.

David Stacey - Programme Manager for Public Health, Lincolnshire County Council
Lisa Holmes - Programme Officer, Lincolnshire County Council

12.00 Panel Q & A on VCS engagement in the development of strategic priorities and needs.

12.20 Comfort Break

12.30 SESSION THREE – VCS Engagement with Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs)

A review of the journey to develop effective engagement between Nene Commissioning and the voluntary sector in Northampton

Dominic McClean - CEO, Northampton Volunteer Centre
Jane Carr - Deputy CEO, Northampton Volunteer Centre

12.50 Q & A on VCS engagement with CCGs

13.10 Concluding remarks and summary

13.15 Lunch & Networking

14.00 Close